

6 'Explorer' Reds – £60

VIÑA REQUINGUA 'ARTE NOBLE' PINOT NOIR CURICO VALLEY, CHILE

Santiago Achurra Larrain founded the winery in 1961 and alongside new generations of his family, has grown the winery to be amongst Chile's top 20 producers. Rich red berry and strawberry fruit with some warming spice flavours which include cinnamon and cloves, beautiful balance, juicy and smoky with a lingering finish.

EL PRIMERO GRACIANO | GARNACHA DO NAVARRA, SPAIN

Following the age-old tradition of offering weary pilgrims on the Camino de Santiago a taste of the fresh new vintage wines, El Primero offers weary wine drinkers a taste of all that is good in modern Spain. The wine is bright, full of succulent fruit and a wonderfully perfumed example of a Graciano Garnacha blend.

BOCCANTINO ORGANIC NEGROAMARO SALENTO, ITALY

Founded in 1952 and based in Trentino, Alto Adige, Schenk Italian Wineries is one of the leading wine producers and exporters of Italian wines. Two flying winemakers, five oenologists and highly trained staff look after the production process. This organic Negroamaro shows an intense nose of blackberry and plum notes. On the palate, it is rounded and well-balanced, with a persistent and long finish. A delicious and natural taste of Italy!

CEPAS MALBEC MENDOZA, ARGENTINA

Because of the popularity of Argentine Malbec, it can sometimes prove difficult to find a memorable wine. Cepas Malbec stands out from the crowd and offers all the tasty traits we demand of an Argentine Malbec... and some. Ripe plummy tannins, hints of sweet spice such as vanilla and cinnamon, gnarly hedgerow fruit. It's too delicious not to remember!

SCHENK WINERY 'GERGENTI' FRAPPATO TERRE SICILIAN VINO BIOLOGICO SICILY

This Gergenti Organic Frappato, made by organically grown grapes, embodies the unique charm of Sicily. Fresh, fruity and like a bowl full of blueberries and blackberries. A wine that is shown TLC from start to finish - completely hand harvested, sustainably produced and organically grown. It's a juicy taste of Sicily in one glass!

MAISON SINNAE 'ELEMENTS TERRA' CÔTES DU RHÔNE RHONE VALLEY, FRANCE

Situated on the right bank of the Rhône, Maison Sinnae grew up on the plateau dominating the villages of Laudun and Chusclan. It was there that the Romans began to spread the culture of vines and wine over two thousand years ago: at Caesar's Camp. This wine is rich in aromas of ripe red berries which gives a full-bodied wine that promises pure indulgence on the palate. Great with lamb, curries, and casseroles.