LA PINADA – 2020 BOBAL AGRICOLA DE VINOS LA HIGUERA

Chisco sources the grapes for this joyous little number from a single parcel called La Pinada planted in Spain in 1958, growing on alluvial and clay soils. This is all about fresh fruit, with lovely crunchy acidity and a slightly darker spine of fruit lurking underneath to add interest.

COMMISSIONER'S BLOCK – SHIRAZ – AUSTRALIA

Alive with blackberry, raspberry and vanilla with a hint of roasted coffee bean. There's concentrated dark plum and spicy pepper flavours shaped by lively tannins. It's a great wine now, but a few more interesting things will develop with another 2-4 years quietly hidden away.

A fresh lively Languedoc wine with soft, ripe tannins. It's deliciously fruity with aromas of dried cranberries and raspberries, in addition to a light touch of tobacco and spiced nuts.
